Policy

It is the policy of NWF Health Network (NWFHN), to mandate contracted CMOs ensure the safety of children in care, while respecting the rights of parents with regard to notification and decision making regarding medical and psychiatric issues of the child. It is important to ensure the successful discharge from an inpatient facility into the community and to ensure that the youth receives the necessary aftercare services.

Procedure

- A. When a child's behavior or verbalizations indicate high risk for injury to self or others, the caregiver, staff, Dependency Case Manager (DCM), and all concerned parties will take all necessary precautions to secure the environment and provide for the safety of the child and others.
 1. When high-risk behaviors or verbalization occurs, the area will be secured and the other children removed.
 2. All appropriate attempts will be made to de-escalate the child in crisis while contacting other individuals, staff for assistance or Mobile Response Team.
 3. If the child does not de-escalate and it is felt that there is a high risk for the child to harm self or others, the caregiver or staff should call emergency personnel through 9-1-1.
- B. Law enforcement will provide assistance and transportation to the crisis unit if deemed necessary.
- C. The caregiver or staff will immediately notify the DCM or the staff person on call about the current situation.
- D. The caregiver, staff, or DCM will contact the crisis unit to assure that the facility has all the needed information to admit the child and to ensure that appropriate treatment is received.
- E. If it appears that a Baker Act for crisis stabilization is likely, the parents (if prior to TPR) will be contacted by the DCM or by the on-call staff.
